Almost half of all students in ATE-supported programs are people of color. By discipline, the percentage of students of color ranges from less than 10 percent to nearly 80 percent.